

MICHAEL W. DOMINICK

Associate

Direct: 617.218.2038

Email: mdominick@tbhr-law.com

Michael is an associate in the firm's Litigation Department. Michael's practice focuses on construction litigation, employment litigation, municipal litigation, contract litigation and general business litigation. Michael has represented clients both in court and in mediation. Prior to joining the firm Michael completed internships with both the U.S. Attorney and U.S. Magistrate Judge Judith Dein.

Bar Admissions

Massachusetts Bar

Memberships

Massachusetts Bar Association

Representative Matters

- Successfully represented a new company and its three founders in a Superior Court trial after they were sued by a competitor.
- Successfully represented a construction company in its litigation and mediation with both a municipality and subcontractors.
- Successfully represented a municipal fire department in negotiations in a dispute over the allocation of fees.

Achievements

- Named a Massachusetts Rising Star by Boston Magazine in 2009

Education

B.A. Transylvania University in Lexington, Kentucky, 1999

J.D., Northeastern University School of Law, 2006